- I. discovery of new facts, or
- II. a fresh approach towards interpretation of facts or theories, or
- III. a distinct advancement in the subject.

17.15. The examiner shall be required to give his/her opinion about candidate's ability for critical examination and sound judgment.

17.16. The examiners shall submit the report on a prescribed form as given in Annexure – G1, and shall make one of the following recommendations:

- I. The thesis be accepted for the award of the Ph. D. degree.
- II. The thesis be accepted for the award of the Ph. D. degree subject to the candidate giving satisfactory answers, at the time of Viva-Voce, to the specific queries raised in the report.
- III. The thesis, in the present form, cannot be accepted for the award of the Ph. D. degree, and the candidate be advised to revise the thesis on certain issues raised in the report and resubmit the thesis. In the case of resubmission, the examiner shall specifically mention whether the thesis must be referred back to him/her for re-evaluation or not.
- IV. The thesis be rejected.

17.17. If all the examiners recommend acceptance of the thesis for the award of the Ph. D. degree, the thesis shall be accepted.

- 17.18. If minimum two examiners recommend rejection of the thesis for the award of the Ph. D. degree, the thesis shall be rejected.
- 17.19. If the examiner(s) raise some queries/seek clarifications, the candidate shall be required to give satisfactory answers to the queries at the time of Viva-Voce.
- 17.20. If one/two or all the examiners recommend revision of the thesis, the candidate shall resubmit the thesis after revision. If a specific examiner asks for the revised thesis to be referred back to him/her, it shall be sent to him/her. Otherwise the revised thesis shall be assessed by the RAC for satisfactory compliance of the desired revision.
- 17.21. If the revised thesis is to be referred back to an examiner, the examiner shall submit his/her report on a prescribed form as given in Annexure – G2. The examiner shall recommend the revised thesis to be either accepted or rejected. Then depending on the recommendation of the other examiner, an appropriate action shall be taken as per Clauses 17.18, 17.19, 17.20 and 17.22 of 17 of these ordinances.
- 17.22. If one examiner recommend rejection and other two examiner recommend acceptance then thesis may be accepted. If two examiner recommends rejection of the thesis and the other recommends acceptance, then a fourth examiner shall be appointed as per Clause 17.10 from the panel of already approved examiners. In such cases, Clause 17.24 of 17 of these ordinances shall apply.
- 17.23. The fourth examiner, if appointed, depending on whether the thesis was rejected by an examiner in the first instance. Once the fourth examiner is appointed, any previous recommendations of the examiner, in whose place the third examiner has been appointed, shall become null and void for all purposes.
- 17.24. In case the fourth examiner recommends acceptance or revision of the thesis or asks for clarifications, then depending on the recommendation of the other examiner (who has not rejected the thesis) an action appropriate to the case mentioned in Clauses 17.8, 17.20 or 17.21 of 17 of these ordinances shall be taken.
- 17.25. In case the fourth examiner recommends the rejection of the thesis, his/her recommendation shall be final and the thesis shall be rejected.
- 17.26. In the case of any ambiguous recommendations by any examiner, the Vice Chancellor's office shall approach the examiner concerned for a clear recommendation. If a clear recommendation is not forthcoming the matter shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor for his/her decision.

17.27. After the reports from all the examiners are received, the Vice Chancellor's office shall perform appropriate action.

17.28. If the thesis has been accepted for the award of the degree, the candidate shall be required to defend his/her thesis in an open Viva-Voce. The date, time and venue of the Viva-Voce with other necessary details shall be adequately notified so as to enable other faculty members and students of the department to attend it.

17.29. The Vice Chancellor's office shall arrange for the Viva-Voce of the candidate as early as possible and normally within one month from the date of receipt of Report.

17.30. The Open Viva Voce shall be taken by an external examiner who has evaluated the thesis however viva voce will be open for all interested faculty, research scholars and students of the institute.

17.31. The external examiner shall submit a comprehensive report on the performance of the candidate at the Viva-Voce, including the discussions over various points raised. The external examiner shall recommend one of the following:

- I. that the degree be awarded
- II. that the candidate be re-examined in a second Viva-Voce,
- III. that the degree be not awarded and the thesis be rejected.

17.32. If the external examiner recommends that the degree be awarded after specific modifications or corrections, the candidate shall submit two hardbound copies of the thesis incorporating corrections, if any, (along with 2 corresponding soft copy versions of the thesis in CDs), one for keeping in the Central library of the Institute and the other for the departmental library. The spare copies of the thesis may be returned to the candidate.

17.33. If the external examiner recommends for a second Viva-Voce, it shall be conducted normally after a period of one month but within three months from the date of the first Viva-Voce.

17.34. In case of rejection of thesis, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to constitute an independent three-member review panel to investigate the cause of rejection of thesis. The review panel shall examine the research work and the examiners' report thereon to submit their findings to the Vice Chancellor for future improvements. It may also examine the matter to suggest as to whether the research scholar can further work on the same topic to rebuild his/her initial work and the correct course of action for achieving that and time frame needed for resubmission of his/her thesis without exceeding the total time period prescribed for submission of thesis in these Ordinances.

17.35. Date of result will be effective from the date of Viva-voce.

17.36. The Institute is to be informed when the research work is published and two copies of such publication should be made available to the Institute by the Scholar.
