

HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

Introduction:-

- Human Rights Day is observed annually on December 10th.
- It marks the anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations in 1948.
- The day highlights the importance of protecting human rights worldwide.
- It raises awareness about global human rights issues.
- Human Rights Day reflects on the progress made in ensuring dignity, freedom, and justice for all.
- It acknowledges the challenges that remain in securing human rights for everyone.
- The day encourages governments, organizations, and individuals to take action to protect and promote human rights.
- It serves as a reminder to advocate for equality and address violations affecting marginalized communities.

Objectives:-

- Raise global awareness about the importance of human rights for all people, regardless of race, gender, nationality, or background.
- Recognize and celebrate advancements made in human rights protections and the ongoing efforts to ensure freedom and justice for all.
- Draw attention to ongoing human rights violations and promote action to address and prevent them.
- Promote the principles of equality, dignity, and respect for every individual, regardless of their differences.
- Engage individuals, organizations, and governments in promoting and protecting human rights.
- Reinforce the importance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its role in shaping global standards for human rights.
- Strengthen global solidarity for the protection and advancement of human rights worldwide.

Committees Involved:-

- Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya

- Department of Education
- Department of Non-violence and Peace
- Department of Science of Learning
- Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute - Central Organizing Committee

About Program:-

- Since 1950, December 10th has been celebrated as Human Rights Day worldwide.
- The day marks the Universal Declaration of Human Rights adopted by the United Nations in 1948.
- Human rights are the basic rights that allow a discrimination-free society and are the pillars of modern civilization.
- Human Rights Day is particularly significant in the present context, as the world faces global tensions and threats.
- Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute celebrated World Human Rights Day on December 10th, 2023.
- The celebration was held under the guidance of Honourable Vice-Chancellor Sh. Bacchraj Dugar.
- Prof. Anand Prakash Tripathi, Principal of Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, was the Chief Speaker.
- Prof. Tripathi discussed the importance of human rights and their introduction to the world stage through the United Nations.
- He highlighted the role of the National Human Rights Commission of India in protecting the rights of underprivileged and marginalized groups.
- Prof. Tripathi also spoke about the tradition of human rights in ancient India and its connection to modern-day principles.
- Key universal human rights principles, such as the right to life, liberty, and freedom, were emphasized, along with the importance of non-discrimination based on caste, creed, race, or religion.
- Dr. Pragti Bhatnagar presented the vote of thanks.
- The program was anchored by Sh. Abhishek Charan

Key-Takeaways:-

- Human Rights Day emphasizes the fundamental rights and freedoms that all people are entitled to, ensuring equality and dignity for everyone.

- The day marks the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations in 1948, which established global standards for human rights protection.
- Human Rights Day serves to raise awareness about current human rights issues and violations around the world.
- It encourages individuals, governments, and organizations to actively promote and protect human rights.
- The day highlights the need to protect the rights of underprivileged, marginalized, and vulnerable communities.
- It provides an opportunity to reflect on the progress made in advancing human rights while recognizing the work still needed.
- It stresses the importance of fighting discrimination based on race, gender, religion, caste, or other factors.
- Acknowledges the significant roles of organizations like the United Nations and National Human Rights Commissions in upholding and advocating for human rights.
- It invites a discussion of human rights values, drawing connections between ancient traditions and modern human rights standards.

MAHATMA GANDHI JAYANTI

Introduction

- Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated on October 2nd every year.
- The day marks the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.
- Gandhi is recognized as the "Father of the Nation" in India.
- His principles of nonviolence (Ahimsa) and truth (Satya) inspired millions.
- The day is observed with ceremonies and events across India.
- People pay tribute to Gandhi at his memorial, Raj Ghat, in New Delhi.
- Activities include prayer meetings, cultural programs, and discussions about his teachings.
- October 2nd is also the International Day of Nonviolence, as declared by the United Nations

Objectives:-

- Honor Mahatma Gandhi's legacy by celebrating his contributions to India's independence and his role as a global advocate for non-violence.
- Promote the values of non-violence and truth by reflecting on and promoting the principles of non-violence (ahimsa) and truth (satya) that Gandhi championed.
- Inspire social harmony by encouraging unity and peace among people of different backgrounds, castes, and religions.
- Pay homage to the freedom struggle by recognizing the sacrifices made by Gandhi and other freedom fighters in achieving India's independence from British colonial rule.
- Encourage community service and self-reliance by highlighting Gandhi's emphasis on self-sufficiency, rural development, and service to society through selfless action.
- Celebrate cultural diversity by reflecting the importance of respecting cultural differences and fostering a sense of collective national identity.

Committees Involved

- Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya
- Department of Education
- Department of Non-violence and Peace
- Department of Science of Learning

About Program:-

- The Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated by Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute, and the Department of Non-Violence and Peace.
- The event took place on 30th September 2023, on the campus, under the guidance of Honourable Vice-Chancellor Sh. Bacchraj Dugar.
- Prof. Anand Prakash Tripathi served as the Chairperson for the program.
- Prof. Jinendra Jain, HoD of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit, Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute, was the chief guest.
- Students presented their thoughts and sang famous bhajans of Mahatma Gandhi.
- Prof. Tripathi discussed Mahatma Gandhi's role in the Indian Freedom Struggle and highlighted his socio-political thoughts, including Non-Violence and Peace.
- Prof. Rekha Tiwari, Head of the Department of English, shared her views on Gandhi's philosophy of social and economic development.
- Dr. Jinendra Jain emphasized the relevance of Gandhi's concepts in daily life and provided examples of their continued applicability.
- The program was beneficial for all faculty members and students of the University.

Key Takeaways

- The Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti celebration on 30th September 2023 at Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute, and the Department of Non-Violence and Peace was impactful and meaningful.
- The event took place under the guidance of Honourable Vice-Chancellor Sh. Bacchraj Dugar, featuring insightful discussions, performances, and reflections on Gandhi's life and teachings.
- Prof. Jinendra Jain (Chief Guest) and Prof. Anand Prakash Tripathi highlighted Gandhi's significant role in the Indian Freedom Struggle and his core philosophies of Non-Violence and Peace.
- Prof. Rekha Tiwari discussed Gandhi's approach to social and economic development.
- Dr. Jinendra Jain emphasized the continued relevance of Gandhi's ideas in modern-day life.
- Students' presentations and bhajans honoring Gandhi's legacy enriched the program, making it beneficial for both faculty members and students.

REPUBLIC DAY

Introduction

- Republic Day is celebrated on January 26th annually as one of India's most significant national events.
- It marks the day when the Constitution of India came into effect in 1950, replacing the Government of India Act (1935).
- This day established India as a sovereign, socialist, secular, and democratic republic.

Objectives

- Honoring the day when India officially became a sovereign, socialist, secular, and democratic republic.
- Reinforcing the ideals of unity in diversity, equality, and inclusivity among India's diverse population.
- Reminding citizens of their rights and responsibilities under the Constitution.
- Paying tribute to leaders like Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, and Sardar Patel, who contributed to India's independence and governance framework.
- Highlighting India's rich traditions, military prowess, and technological advancements through the Republic Day parade in New Delhi.
- Encouraging citizens to uphold national values, respect the law, and contribute to nation-building.

Committees Involved

- Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalaya
- Department of Education
- Department of Non-violence and Peace
- Department of Science of Learning
- Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute - Central Organizing Committee

About The Programme:-

- Sh. Baccharaj Dugar, the Honorable Vice Chancellor of Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute, addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech.
- He emphasized the significance of Republic Day and how it symbolizes India's journey towards a democratic and inclusive society.
- He reminded students and faculty of their duties as responsible citizens, urging them to uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution.
- He spoke about the role of education in shaping young minds and ensuring that future generations understand the sacrifices made for India's independence.
- Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute, he noted, has always been committed to nation-building, moral values, and holistic education, and he encouraged students to take pride in being part of such a prestigious institution.
- The Vice Chancellor concluded his speech by urging everyone to contribute positively to society and to always cherish and protect the ideals of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

Conclusion

- The Republic Day celebration at Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute was a grand success, achieving its objectives of honoring India's constitutional history, promoting unity, and fostering patriotism.
- Jain Vishwa Bharti Institute has been leading the way in instilling national pride, democratic values, and cultural heritage in its students and faculty.
- The event played a crucial role in educating students about the significance of the Constitution, the sacrifices of freedom fighters, and the responsibilities of citizens in upholding democratic values.
- The institution remains committed to celebrating national and international commemorative events, fostering a culture of respect, integrity, and national pride among its students and faculty.

