Description:

2nd of October is celebrated every year in the country as Gandhi Jayanti to commemorate the birthday of the 'Father of the Nation' Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. This day is celebrated as the International Day of Non-Violence as Gandhiji was the preacher of non-violence. He is a symbol of peace and truth.

This day was celebrated by the students and faculty members of JVBI department of Non Violence and Peace and on this occasion, the students participated in various events organized for them. A Debate competition was organized and the topic for the debate was (Role of Gandhi in India's freedom struggle is exaggerated). Followed by the event "talk on Gandhi jayanti", was conducted with great enthusiasm to pay tribute to the Father of the Nation as well as remember his courageous deeds on the way of independence struggle for the country from British rule. Various aspects of his life were discussed, his childhood, simple lifestyle but high thinking. He was the pioneer of truth and non-violence who started the Satyagraha movement for India's freedom. He struggled a lot and played a significant role in the achievement of freedom for India from British rule. He not only pioneered the unique method of non-violence to get freedom for India against British rule but also proved the world that freedom can be achieved peacefully through the path of non-violence. He is still remembered among us as the symbol of peace and truth. The talk was ended by singing his favorite song "Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram, Patit Pavan Sita Ram..." in order to pay homage to Gandhiji.

Description:

Sardar Vallabh bhai Patel, Iron man of India, practical visionary & architect of modern & united India, is an immortal name in the history of India whose contribution to make the country free from the manacles of slavery can't be penned down easily. He is the man who worked enormously to keep India afloat on path of unity & progress. Every year his birth anniversary is celebrated as National Unity Day to provide an occasion to re-affirm the inherent strength and resilience of the nation to withstand the actual and potential threats to the unity, integrity and security of our country. JVBI honored the day by organizing various activities. The following events were conducted with an active participation of volunteers:

1. Unity Run by students ,
2. Screening of Documentary film on the theme "Unity"
3. Most creative Slogan contest on the Unity Theme
4. Essay Writing on "Relevance & Importance of Sardar Patel in Today's India"

Finally a pledge on Rashtriya Ekta was taken "I solemnly pledge that I dedicate myself to preserve the unity integrity and society of the nation and also strive hard to spread one message among my fellow countrymen. I take the pledge to the spirit of unification of my country which was made possible by action and vision of sir Vallabh Bhai Patel. I also solemnly resolve to make my own contribution to ensure internal security of my country."

Name of the Activity: Constitution Day Celebration

Date : 26.11.2018

Category: Observance of fundamental duties

Number of Faculty Participants: 38

Number of Student Participants: 162

Description:

Constitution Day (National Law Day), also known as Samvidhan Divas, is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950. In the Lieu of Indian Constitution day, the Students of JVBI celebrated to commemorate the spirit of the day through lectures, quizzes, essay competitions etc. The students put up charts in the corridors of the university where most of the students and faculty members could in the passing read the various aspects of Constitution starting with the Preamble. Followed by the Preamble were the Fundamental Rights, Fundamental duties, Directive Principles of State and the Union and its Territory. Detailed charts to educate one and all in the campus were displayed with lot of enthusiasm. Students Read out the Preamble and explained the importance of Fundamental Rights and Duties. Importantly the Directive Principles of State which is gaining more and more importance was also put up for discussion by the students. Faculty members encouraged the students by visiting all the charts and enquiring about each aspect put up by them. Some of faculty members were kind enough to enrich the students with added knowledge and understanding. Students also put up the photos of the great men and women who were the authors of the Constitution. So the Constitution day was celebrated with extreme reverence and remembrance of the great Men and Woman who drafted a Constitution that was defined by a noble and expansive philosophy and generation next is taking it further in spirit and word.

Sardar Vallabh bhai Patel, Iron man of India, practical visionary & architect of modern & united India, is an immortal name in the history of India whose contribution to make the country free from the manacles of slavery can't be penned down easily. He is the man who worked enormously to keep India afloat on path of unity & progress. Every year his birth anniversary is celebrated as National Unity Day to provide an occasion to re-affirm the inherent strength and resilience of the nation to withstand the actual and potential threats to the unity, integrity and security of our country. JVBI honored the day by organizing various activities. The following events were conducted with an active participation of volunteers:

1. Unity Run by students ,
2. Screening of Documentary film on the theme "Unity"
3. Most creative Slogan contest on the Unity Theme
4. Essay Writing on "Relevance & Importance of Sardar Patel in Today's India"

Finally a pledge on Rashtriya Ekta was taken "I solemnly pledge that I dedicate myself to preserve the unity integrity and society of the nation and also strive hard to spread one message among my fellow countrymen. I take the pledge to the spirit of unification of my country which was made possible by action and vision of sir Vallabh Bhai Patel. I also solemnly resolve to make my own contribution to ensure internal security of my country."

Description:

Constitution Day (National Law Day), also known as Samvidhan Divas, is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950. In the Lieu of Indian Constitution day, the Students of JVBI celebrated to commemorate the spirit of the day through lectures, quizzes, essay competitions etc. The students put up charts in the corridors of the university where most of the students and faculty members could in the passing read the various aspects of Constitution starting with the Preamble. Followed by the Preamble were the Fundamental Rights, Fundamental duties, Directive Principles of State and the Union and its Territory. Detailed charts to educate one and all in the campus were displayed with lot of enthusiasm. Students Read out the Preamble and explained the importance of Fundamental Rights and Duties. Importantly the Directive Principles of State which is gaining more and more importance was also put up for discussion by the students. Faculty members encouraged the students by visiting all the charts and enquiring about each aspect put up by them. Some of faculty members were kind enough to enrich the students with added knowledge and understanding. Students also put up the photos of the great men and women who were the authors of the Constitution. So the Constitution day was celebrated with extreme reverence and remembrance of the great Men and Woman who drafted a Constitution that was defined by a noble and expansive philosophy and generation next is taking it further in spirit and word.

Description:

2nd of October is celebrated every year in the country as Gandhi Jayanti to commemorate the birthday of the 'Father of the Nation' Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. This day is celebrated as the International Day of Non-Violence as Gandhiji was the preacher of non-violence. He is a symbol of peace and truth.

This day was celebrated by the students and faculty members of JVBI department of Non Violence and Peace and on this occasion, the students participated in various events organized for them. A Debate competition was organized and the topic for the debate was (Role of Gandhi in India's freedom struggle is exaggerated). Followed by the event "talk on Gandhi jayanti", was conducted with great enthusiasm to pay tribute to the Father of the Nation as well as remember his courageous deeds on the way of independence struggle for the country from British rule. Various aspects of his life were discussed, his childhood, simple lifestyle but high thinking. He was the pioneer of truth and non-violence who started the Satyagraha movement for India's freedom. He struggled a lot and played a significant role in the achievement of freedom for India from British rule. He not only pioneered the unique method of non-violence to get freedom for India against British rule but also proved the world that freedom can be achieved peacefully through the path of non-violence. He is still remembered among us as the symbol of peace and truth. The talk was ended by singing his favorite song "Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram, Patit Pavan Sita Ram..." in order to pay homage to Gandhiji.
